Narrative:
1. On August 15, 2016, at 0036 hours, I responded to 139 Main Street in Burlington, Vermont, for a male and female refusing to leave the bar. When I carrived on scene, I observed a male and female walking westbound on Main Street. The bartender at JP's (Aubree Brunette) pointed at the female and told me Che was punched by her twice. The female was later identified as Lori Lundberg (DOB 03/04/1968). I told Lundberg to stop multiple times and as I approached her she told me not to touch her.	0036 hours, I res e and female wa e female was late	ponded to 139 Mair llking westbound on er identified as Lori l	Street in Burling Main Street. 2. I took control of Lundberg's right arm and she swung at me with her left arm with a closed fist. At this time, I was in fear that she was attempting to assault me. I conducted a modified arm bar take down and assisted her to the ground. Lundberg continued to tense up and began yelling help. I told her multiple times to stop resisting. Lundberg's boyfriend, Mark Anderson (DOB 06/09/59), was less than a foot away from me asking me what I was doing in an aggressive elevated tone. It should be noted that when I told Lundberg to stop originally, Anderson was almost directly next to me and just stated "What's going on?" I told him multiple times to get back. I was finally able to place Lundberg in handcuffs. I once again had to tell Anderson to get back as he leaned in to yell at me. advised him he would be pepper sprayed if he did not back up. Several officers arrived on scene and removed him from my immediate area. I double locked the handcuffs on Lundberg and escorted her to my car with Ofc. Belleville.

- Sand punched her twice in the face. Brunette said her was halfway closed or so. Brunette said on a scale of 1-10, 1 being the least amount of pain she had ever felt and 10 being the worst, the first punch was a 6-7 and the second punch was an 8 or 9. Lundberg exited the bar at this time and that was when Brunette pointed CLundberg began yelling at Brunette and said something to the effect of "I'm going to kill you." Anderson started yelling at the other customer calling him a "faggot" +her out. Brunette once again confirmed the female I had in custody was the same female that assaulted her. ∨and stating he was going to kill him because he was from Virginia. Brunette continued to ask Anderson and Lundberg to leave. Lundberg called Brunette a "cunt" [∨]She asked Lundberg and Anderson to leave. They refused to leave. Brunette then called the police department. Anderson attempted to get Lundberg to leave. Anderson became upset with this and started verbally abusing the patron. Brunette told Anderson to leave the other customer alone and took their drinks away down. She served them both one drink and Anderson began speaking with another patron at the bar. The other patron told Anderson he was from Virginia. 3. I spoke with Brunette at JP's and she agreed to a sworn recorded statement. Brunette told me that Anderson and Lundberg entered the bar and sat
